AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

Strike out after the words "a bill" and insert the following:

"Section 1. Be it enacted, That the Fourth or Parson's Creek Election District of Dorchester county be and is hereby divided into two election precincts to be called 'Precinct No. 1, or Madison Precinct,' and 'Precinct No. 2, or Taylor's Island Precinct;' all that part of said Fourth or Parson's Creek District being eastward of a line beginning with the headwaters of Parson's Creek and running with Stuart's Canal to its intersection with the headwaters of Black Water River and with said river to the Big Water Bridge, shall constitute the first or Madison Precinct, and the voting place shall be Madison; and all that part of said Fourth or Parson's Creek District lying to the westward of said line shall constitute the second or Taylor's Island Precinct and the voting place shall be at Taylor's Island.

"Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of Dorchester county are hereby authorized and directed to do all things and make all necessary arrangements to carry out the provisions of this Act."

Which was concurred in.

Said bill, as amended, was then passed by yeas and nays, as follows:
